

Other types

Other types of conveyances were: the buck-board; the fringe-topped Surrey; the phaeton; sedan; rig cart; sulky; buggy.

PHOTOGRAPHY / STUART W. JOHNSON
Snow Prince Ian Childs, Princess Stephanie Mashburn wave to crowd.

To the south east of the valley, the mountains were clothed in the white of winter snows of monys before. How profound was the silence of those heights! How absolute the calm of the atmosphere! The pines slept under the stars that night and the very heaven flooded the camp with glory.

"This is the place," declared their leader, Brigham

Jim Bridger claimed to be the first white man to discover the lake in 1825. In 1776 a party of Spaniards led by Father Escalante explored here.

Young. The promised land had been reached, and among the many things to do was to get down to the soil and conquer it and, in conquering it, they loved it. They turned the waters of the mountain stream onto the land and plowed and planted. A prayer of dedication was offered to God and the work of plowing and planting continued.

The following day was the Sabbath. The people

Editor's Note: Other articles by Professor Young in this edition appear under captions "School Bells Ring," "Taking Root," "Growing Pains," "Sidewalks of Salt Lake," "Learning's Light," "Knowledge Is Power," "Freedom to Worship," "Religious Growth" and "Home, Sweet Home."

Few rode to Utah, and there were those who had a wagon for their possessions. Few rode to Utah, and there were those who had a wagon for their possessions. Few rode to Utah, and there were those who had a wagon for their possessions. Few rode to Utah, and there were those who had a wagon for their possessions.

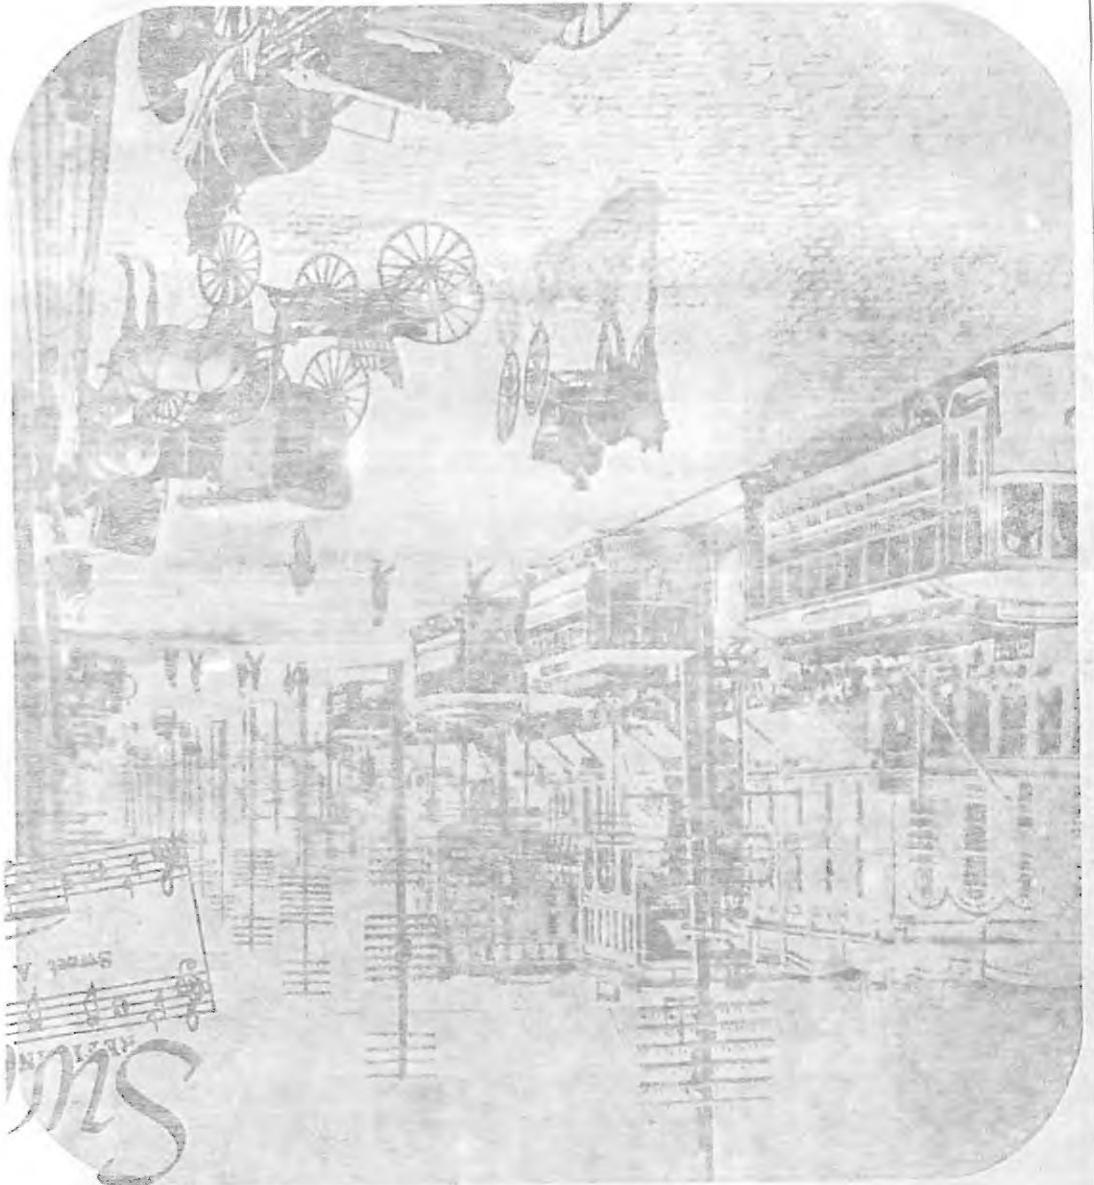

Brigham Young, ill of mountain fever, traveled in rear of group in Wilford Woodruff's carriage. He first saw the valley at noon, July 24, 1847.

himself in union with God, man, and the world to keep himself and his people in happy heart. He had a ceaseless devotion to the claims of justice. He believed that there is a call of God to nations as well as to men, and looked upon the government of the United States, with its constitution, as a government called of God.

"To us, their less tried successors, those pioneers appear magnified, not as agents of trade, but as instruments of a recorded destiny, pushing out into the unknown in obedience of an inward voice, to an impulse beating in the blood, to a dream of the future."—Joseph Conrad.

Looks like First South and Main used to adown the street. These were the horse and buggy days of days that used to be. looks, Trolleys, power lines, telephone poles side. "Look Out for Cars!" only order.

To the south and east, the mountains rise, clothed in the white of winter snows of months before. How profound was the silence of those heights! How absolute the calm of the atmosphere! The pines slept under the stars that night and the very heaven flooded the camp with glory.

"This is the place," declared their leader, Brigham

Jim Bridger claimed to be the first white man to discover the lake, in 1825. In 1776 a party of Spaniards led by Father Escalante explored here.

Young. The promised land had been reached, and among the many things to do was to get down to the soil and conquer it and, in conquering it, they loved it. They turned the waters of the mountain stream onto the land and plowed and planted. A prayer of dedication was offered to God and the work of plowing and planting continued.

The following day was the Sabbath. The people had a ceaseless devotion to the claims of justice. He believed that there is a call of God to nations as well as to men, and looked upon the government of the United States, with its constitution, as a government called of God.

Editor's Note: Other articles by Professor Young in this edition appear under captions "School Bells Ring," "Taking Root," "Growing Pains," "Sidewalks of Salt Lake," "Learning's Light," "Knowledge Is Power," "Freedom to Worship," "Religious Growth" and "Home, Sweet Home."

"To us, their less tried successors, those pioneers appear magnified, not as agents of trade, but as instruments of a recorded destiny, pushing out into the unknown in obedience of an inward voice, to an impulse beating in the blood, to a dream of the future."—Joseph Conrad.

those who there were Utah, and there were
possessions,
Few rode to
didn't even have a wagon for their possessions, but crossed the plains with a handcart holding all.

Brigham Young, ill of mountain fever, travelled in rear of group in Wilford Woodruff's carriage. He first saw the valley at noon, July 24, 1847.

Vol. 6, p. 7

Nothing like a day in the country in an old buckboard. Good for fishing or hunting, or just plain travel, this vehicle was common in the early days. It had canvas curtains, suggestive of Venetian blinds, to shut out wind and weather.

167 - Buckboard - Vol. 6, p. 7

Geo E Anderson

MEL'S SUPPLY
145 West 400 South
Lehi, Utah 84043
801-768-3519

Mel & Dona Anderson
369 South 200 West
801-768-9926

BUGGI

To Transportation

Prices Effective
March 15, 1984

1. One-Seat Sled	•	$ 750.00
2. Two-Seat Sled	•	950.00
3. Show or Pleas	•	795.00
4. Training Carr	•	400.00
5. Run-a-bout .	•	1500.00
6. Queen's Phae:	•	2000.00
7. Single-Seat 1	•	1555.00
8. Extra Seat fo	•	315.00
9. Doctor's Bugi	•	1850.00
10. Double-Seat Democrat	•	1900.00
With "Soft-Top"	•	2400.00
With Surrey Top	•	2200.00
12. Forecart (Without Tongue)	•	800.00
13. Forecart (With Tongue)	•	850.00
14. Single Horse Shafts	•	250.00
15. Team Tongue (Includes Double-tree & Neck Yoke) . . .	•	350.00
16. Leather Buggy Harness	•	225.00
17. Black Nylon Harness	•	165.00
18. Three-Seat Democrat*(6 Passenger) with "Soft-Top" . .	4300.00
19. Three-Seat Democrat*(8 Passenger) with "Soft-Top" . .	4500.00
* Includes Brakes and Lights
20. Vis-A-Vis	•	4300.00
21. Fancy Touring Surrey:
Steel-sided	•	7120.00
Oak-sided	•	9500.00
Oak-sided with all options*	•	9995.00

*Options include pinstriping driving lights, engraved name.

Terms:

50% down--balance on delivery
All units F.O.B. Bozeman, Mont.

Special order items:

Prices and design upon request

"...All you need's a horse!"

AMOUNT DUE	DATE CANCELLATION
---------------	----------------------

GRIGEN - RAYMOND
375 E 2ND N
HEBER UT 84032

GROSS PREMIUM $
MINUS DIVIDEND $
AGENT 1096 DAIRY R SHUML

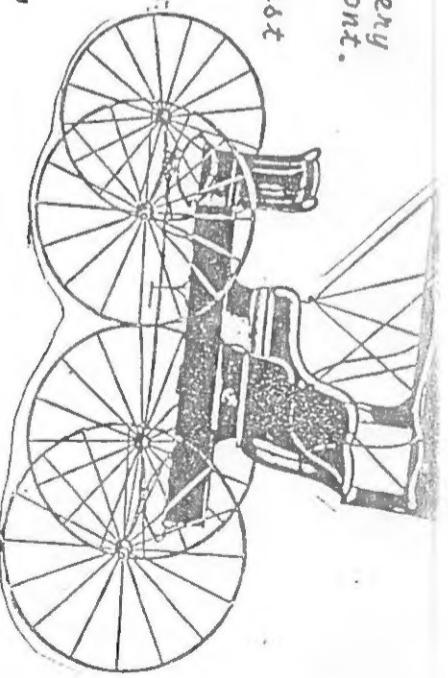

POLICY NUMBER 4368 124-C19-44A

D. J. G. M. A. T.

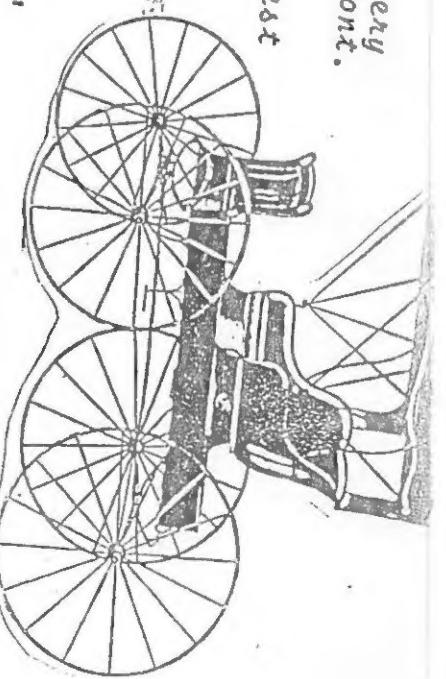

THE PREMIUM NO FURTHER NOTICE WILL BE SENT TO YOU.
CANCELLATION WITH ITS CANCELLATION PROVISIONS YOUR POLICY IDENTIFIED IN THIS NOTICE IS CANCELED EFFECTIVE 12:01 A.M. STANDARD TIME APR-06-75 DUE TO NON-PA

²⁵ down--balance on delivery
All units F.O.B. Bozeman, Mont.
Special order items:
Prices and design upon request

"...All you need's a horse!"

30% down--balance on delivery
All units F.O.B. Bozeman, Mont.
Special order items:
Prices and design upon request

"...All you need's a horse!"

THE CUTLERY SPECIALISTS

L. LORENZ GRINDING

80 YEARS STRONG 1910-1990

